

RELEASE FORM OF THE HIGH ROPES COURSE

Please read following instructions carefully:

The High Ropes Course in Gänsehäufelbad is designed with the intent to challenge participants physically, psychologically and mentally. The completion of the courses includes climbing, jumping, balancing, sliding, cycling, flying fox and other activities at natural and artificial obstacles. The station varies in height from 0' to 8' meters above ground.

Participants of the course will travel independently from station to station without a guide and are expected to be completely responsible for themselves. The high ropes course is TÜV-certified in Austria, approved by the ERCA (European Ropes Course Association) and certified with the SAFETY-LINE® Safetysystem with the highest Safetystatus E from EN 15567 (it is not possible to unhook the carabiners competely). The yellow parcours are the starters and available for children at the age of 8 years. These parcours were built under ÖNORM (austrian standard) and can be used by children (minimum height 110 cm) without being accompanied by their parents or legal guardians. Kids under 8 years have to be accomponied by an adult.

It is important that all participants take full responsibility and understand the risks involved in taking part in the challenges presented at the high ropes course.

DISCLAIMER

I am completely aware that the high ropes course will place high physical and psychological demands on the participant. In addition the participant acknowledges that taking part in the activities of the high ropes course, there is a possibility of severe injury. I fully understand the risk involved in the high ropes course and I (and/or my kid/kids) enter at my/their own risk voluntarily. I assume all dangers or risks (both known and unknown) associated with my participation in the high ropes course and release Event4you GmbH as well as their staff from all legal claims arising from my participation. According to my own estimations (on site or from pictures on the internet) regarding the high ropes course, I consider myself and/or my children fully capable of managing the course independently. After the preliminary introductory explanation regarding the use of the course, in accordance with the safety regulations, you (and/or your children) as the participant have the option to discontinue the course and receive a full refund.

I confirm that I have completed the registration form truthfully and that I or my children do not have any health-related problems or handicaps that could impair my activities in the high ropes course.

I commit myself to inform the Event4you GmbH management immediately if any circumstances such as injuries or illness arise that could impair my or the ability of my children to continue with my participation in the high ropes course.
